“The eternal God is a dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms ...”
Deuteronomy 33:27a

- Home is more than a saying on a souvenir plaque
- Home is a fundamental human longing for acceptance, openness, and love
- As spiritual beings God was meant to be part of our Home
- Home is a deeper dimension of our lives designed by a God of Love
- Present yearnings for home today reveal some sense of loss in past history when Paradise was lost
- Selfish pride bore the poison fruit of broken human ties and alienation
- But our God of Love has not left us with no way Home
- The Son of God left Home to bring us back to His Father’s House
- He is a dwelling place for those who believe
- Jesus’ sacrifice secured for us the Home our first ancestors once enjoyed in God’s presence
- Fully reconciled to God by His death on a cross, anyone who believes in Jesus as the way back Home can enjoy peace, communion with God and that elusive feeling of being at home with family and friends

As part of a series of short studies, we invite you to consider God’s answer for the various human conditions that beset us all. Please join us as we examine the topic of Home on
